D.O.B. (over 16 yrs only)
e-mail Address
Mobile number

I apply to The Addington Medical Centre to join the service provided by Patient Access, thereby allowing me to book routine appointments and order repeat prescriptions over the Internet. I accept the terms and conditions of The Addington Medical Centre detailed below and I undertake to keep my user name, PIN, User ID, and password confidential and not to disclose these details to any other person. I understand that I am limited to booking a single appointment at any one time and I undertake to give as much notice as possible if I need to cancel an appointment (either via the Internet or by telephoning the surgery). I understand that use of the Messaging Service is restricted to administration queries only and cannot be used to raise or discuss any clinical matters. I understand that any reply from the practice will be sent to my Patient Access account and not my registered e-mail address. I understand that any change of contact details registered via Patient Access are subject to approval by the practice and if I move out of the practice area, I will need to register with a GP practice closer to my new address.

I understand that my failure to comply with these terms or other misuse of the system may result in The Addington Medical Centre terminating my use of the Patient Access system.
